TIME
The 28th Annual Interdisciplinary Conference of the International Forum for Psychoanalytic Education invites us to bring “TIME” into the open…

Troubling, confounding, mystifying, surprising, provoking, and evoking, TIME is a prime component of psychoanalytic history and the pseudo-invisible backdrop for every aspect of our existence. From the caverns of a timeless unconscious to Freud’s fearful reckonings in the year of his death; from immersion in subjectivity to existential anxiety; through the length and frequency of sessions; and even interwoven. Either we race against it, or TIME stalks us. We never know how much time we have, and it waits for none of us.

Join us as we consider our encounters with TIME. Meet in our conference space, and engage in the now, situated between past and future. Join us as we consider our encounters with TIME.
